Happy 2010!

I hope you all had a wonderful and Safe Holiday Season!! I can't wait to start the new year with all of you again!!

Preschool

I will be doing a little review with all the kids just to get them back on track with things after the Holiday break. Once we get the swing of things again I plan on doing a little more hands on activities with crafts, baking and getting started with our tea-parties. I will continue to focus on workbook pages on Tuesday and Thursday mornings and other activities alternating on the other days.

"...A little review where put us where we want to be...."

Reminders

I am working on the year-end receipts and hope to have them out by January 11, 2010, if not sooner. Please remind me if you have tuition assistance with your work so I know where my personal information is going. I have also changed my tax ID number so please take note of that when you go to file your taxes. If you have any questions please let me know!

Children are unpredictable. You never know what inconsistency they're going to catch you in next.

Learning Time - Sign Language

Along with the use of the flashcard I have been showing the little ones the sign that goes with each letter. Sometimes after seeing me do the sign then they recognize the letter on the card and yell it out. A copy of the alphabet in sign for the parents is attached in this newsletter.

Repetition is always helpful when the little ones are learning; the more they hear (or see) something the faster they will grasp the idea.

Please keep a copy of the words that we are working on some place close at hand-I have noticed that they are really learning what these words mean and are using them more and more when they want something.

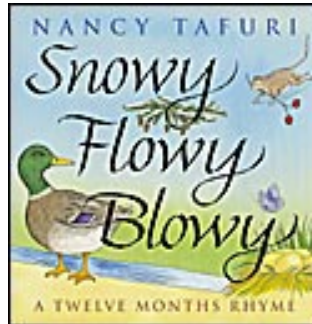

Use praise when they try and communicate and encourage them to 'use their words'... whichever way they are trying to talk to you.

"...keep the words simple..."

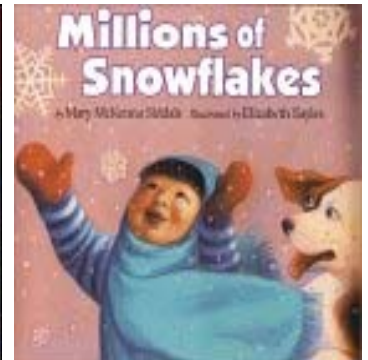

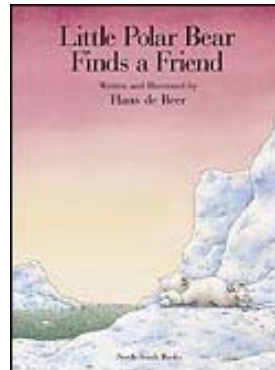

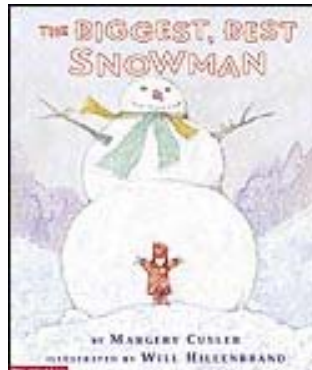

Books to Read

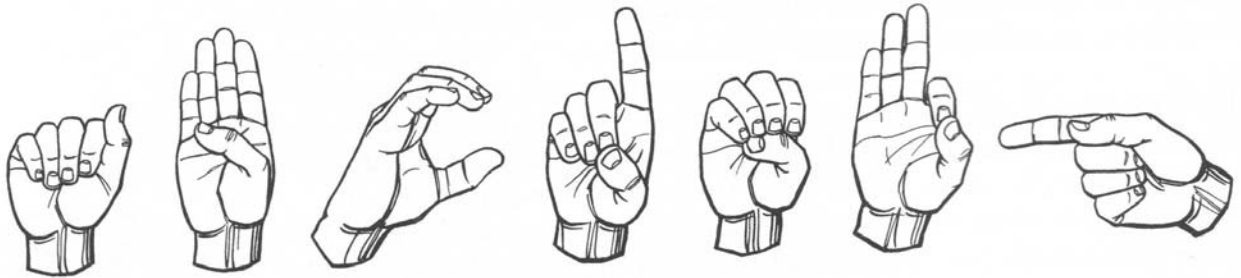

"Read to your children often to instill a love of reading in them to last a lifetime. Let them pick the book you read and watch them sit and listen"

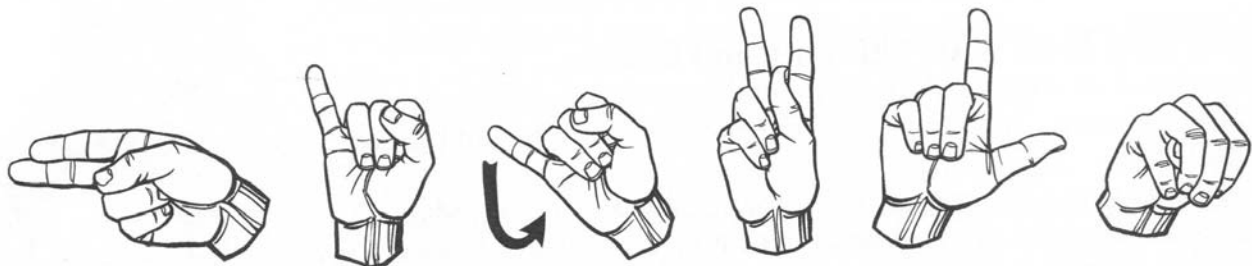

"read to your children often..."
